FOURTEEN TIMES AROUND

MRS. T. P. COLCORD HAS SEEN MUCH OF THE WORLD.

Was the Heroine in the Santiago Disaster—British Government Presented Her With a Gold Bracelet.

The steamship Zealandia brought a passenger, Mrs. T. P. Colcord, the charming and talented wife of Capt. T. P. Colcord, of the big American ship, Henry B. Hyde, which is loading sugar in this port for New York.

Mrs. Colcord has had an eventful and interesting career, having sailed the seas with her gallant husband for more than ten years. She has rounded the Horn probably oftener than any lady living, fourteen times, all told, making the passage around the storm beaten coast of Africa, once in the John McDonald, and thirteen times in the beautiful merchant ship A. J. Fuller. The lady has been many times face to face with experiences which "try men's souls," but the hand of care and trouble has not left its mark upon her.

Mrs. Colcord was the heroine in the celebrated Santiago disaster, when the great English steamship was burned to the water's edge in mid-ocean, during a terrific hurricane. The crew and passengers were saved by the A. J. Fuller, many hours after they were compelled to leave their vessel, and to the unstinted care and attention of Mrs. Colcord, a sick woman and her new born babe, owe their lives. She was publicly thanked by the British government and presented with a massive gold bracelet, with a tiny but a perfect compass as a setting.

Mrs. Colcord has been in every sea and almost every part of the globe. She converted the cabin of the A. J. Fuller into a miniature palace, which was the pride and boast of the American merchant marine. The lady is a delightful conversationalist and an accomplished pianist. She will accompany her husband for the fifteenth time around the Horn to New York.

OUT OF THE NAVY.

The news has been received that Luther G. Billings, pay director in the United States navy, has been found guilty by a court martial, which has been in session at the Washington navy yard for the past few days, of falsehood and scandalous conduct, and has been sentenced to dismissal from the navy. The result of the trial caused the greatest surprise in naval circles.

I have given Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a fair test and consider it one of the best medicines for croup that I have ever found. One dose has always been sufficient, although I use it freely. Any cold my children contract yields very readily to this medicine. I can conscientiously recommend it for croup and colds in children.—George E. Wolff, Clerk of Circuit Court, Fernandina, Fla. The Man Hardest to Suit

Is the man worth suiting. We take pleasure in fitting the particular man, the man who insists that his trousers must be just so; that his top coat must be just that length—the right color—and have a graceful hang. That's the chap we want—the one who sometimes find fault, because no fault can be found with our goods.
